

Mrs. Solomon Smith Looking On
Pansy (1841-1930)

Old Mrs. Solomon Smith considers herself “nothing but an ignorant old woman” who didn’t have the advantages others did when growing up. However, those around her know that she’s actually full of biblical wisdom and the experience of walking with Christ through the years. She shares her wisdom – and more importantly, Christ – to those she meets in everyday life, in a wise and gentle manner. She touches lives wherever she goes. But can her life and example touch the heart of Laura, a young woman who loves and respects her, but doesn’t seem interested in religion? (Summary by TriciaG)
